

Julie Howard
Board Chair

Julie brings more than 30 years of professional services experience, including numerous leadership positions where she was responsible for creating and executing growth strategies across services, industries, and global geographies.

Julie is the retired chief executive officer of Riveron, following the successful sale of Riveron to Kohlberg and Company in July 2023. She joined Riveron in October 2020 as a board member and became CEO in March of 2021. She is also the former chairman and chief executive officer of Navigant Consulting. During her tenure at Navigant (NYSE:NCI), Julie led the company through a major business transformation, completed 12+ acquisitions, and grew revenue to over $1.2 billion prior to the successful sale of the business in two parts to Ankura (MDP-backed) in 2018 and Guidehouse (Veritas-backed) in 2019.

In addition to serving on Riveron's board of directors, she is the lead director on the board of ManpowerGroup and serves on the board of Sleep Number and Treliant. She formerly served on the board of InnerWorkings, Navigant Consulting, and Kemper Corporation.
